

The purpose of this activity is to educate nurses on what areas to be better informed of in home health, what is expected, and what will be surveyed. This will enhance the quality of care delivered, assist other nurses who are working for the agency, and will improve overall operation of the agency in maintaining compliance.

www.compliancereviewservices.com

Compliance Review Services, Inc.
Educational Unit

Presents

Learning How to Run Your Home Health Agency for RNs and Administrators

(AN ONLINE LEARNER PACED PROGRAM)

OBJECTIVES:

1. Participant will identify the purpose and function(s) of the professional Advisory Committee and Governing Body within Home Health.
2. Participant will identify the regulatory requirements for the annual agency evaluation and will understand how to write the annual report.
3. Participant will be able to verbalize what the Clinical Record Review (QAPI) quarterly requirements are and how to achieve compliance.
4. Participant will be able to verbalize the time frames for completing complaint investigation and resolution.
5. Participant will know that there are required policies for home health and have a basic understanding of the policy requirements.
6. Participant will identify 3 key elements in writing a plan of treatment and completing a case conference (60 day) summary.
7. Participant will identify 2 strategies to follow during a State Survey.

Successful completion of this course with 5 clock hours awarded requires completion and submission of a post- test meeting the requirements of a pre-determined score, self-reported level of achievement of objectives, a completion of the course before the deadline date(30 days to complete) and a completion of the online course evaluation.

General Information:

WHEN: See Website for Dates

WHERE: Online
www.compliancereviewservices.com

Please complete online registration form.

This activity provides 5 clock hours

COST FOR THE COURSE:

We are offering this online course for $200.00 per registrant. We accept MasterCard, Visa, and PayPal.